Class History

In September 1940, a group of eager boys and girls entered Owensville School. Among those boys and girls Shirley Wagner, Wanda Lou Morris, Loretta Burdsall, Joanne Hoffman, Irene Rosse lot, Vonda Lea Gaul, and Charles Holland are still together. They are among the twenty-one boys and girls who make up the Senior Class of '52.

In the third grade Louella Shepherd joined us. Also in the third grade Miss Ulrey took us on an excursion to the Cincinnati Zoo which was one of the memorable events during our twelve years in school.

In our fifth year Elaine Brown, Barbara White, Danny Keenan, and Richard Brynes decided to join our class. This year held another event for us. We had a Goblin's Cave at the school Halloween Party.

In the seventh grade Thomas Joslin entered the class. This year we had a lot of fun in having the "Fun House" at another Halloween Party.

Paul Schnurr and Carolyn Schumard came in the eighth grade in time to help us with our commencement. Danny Keenan was Valedictorian Vonda Lea Gaul was Salutatorian.

Pat Wilson, Cynthia Heckinger, Carl Ritter, and Ann Hardin became members of our Freshman Class. Soon after we started our ninth year of school we were officially initiated into high school.

Two outstanding events of the sophomore year were our hayride and dance at Wanda Lou's cabin and our trip to Fort Ancient with Mrs. Corbett. This year Geraldine Honeycutt, Bill Wells, and Charles Anderson joined the class.

Our Junior year was a very busy one. This year we gained a new member, Florence Stewart, and we lost Cynthia Heckinger, Joan Patchell, and Paul Schnurr. We raised funds this year by selling refreshments at basketball games and operating the candy machines. We sponsored two dances this year. One in October, "Dance of the Acorns," and another in December, "Holiday Hop." Under the patient dance of Mrs. Lohrer we had a very successful Prom and class play, "Everybody's Crazy." She also took us to see the movie "Hamlet."

During the summer two of our classmates, Karl Popp and Sonny Lemon, joined the Air Force so they won't be with us to graduate in the spring. We also lost Richard Brynes, Charles Anderson, Ann Hardin, and Geraldine Honeycutt. We welcomed four new members into our class, Patricia Murray, Martha Colby, Bobby Hawk, and Charles Brownlee.

This year we have a lot of new responsibilities. We have been raising funds for our annual by selling magazine subscriptions, scatter pins, and pencils with the basketball schedule on them. We also edit the school paper once a month this year. Under the guidance of Mrs. Geddes and Mr. Evans we hope to edit a successful annual. We also have our class play to present.

We appreciate the understanding and patience that all our teachers have shown us.

Class Prophecy

Last night the 1952 Class of Owensville had a reunion after having been graduated for ten years. I hadn't seen some of them for so long I hardly recognized them. As my partner and I danced around the floor, my thoughts were turned to a night such as this ten years-- ago "Senior Prom". About the same crowd was here to night but still it seemed different.

"Circle Waltz, and count off five" It was Mr. Evans, I knew before I turned around to see

The first boy I passed was Daniel Keenan, he was the same old Danny, but instead of pulling jokes he was now pulling teeth, yes, Danny is now a very successful dentist in Owensville. Next to pass by me was William Wells, he is now a family man with a wife and three children. Carl Ritter was third to go by, he is now delivering his milk to the residents of Owensville. Charles Holland was fourth in the line who had just been selected as the best coon hunter in Clermont County. My fifth and last dancing partner was Robert Hawk who is now a very successful farmer.

As my partners and I finished the dance we went to get some refreshments where I bumped into Irene Rosselot whom I heard has taken over her fathers business selling Evenspread Lime Spreader Beds. As we were talking she told me that Shirley Wagner was doing some modeling of wedding gowns for Shillitos'

After I finished my refreshments I decided to comb my hair, as I stepped into the powder room I met Barbara White who is now a song writer. As we were discussing old times she told me that, Florence Stewart and Louella Shepherd now own a candy store.

Coming out of the powder room I met Vonda Lea Gaul, who owns a drug store, she told me that Loretta Burdsall is now running a horse breeding farm in Louisville, Kentucky, and Elaine Brown is married and has two children.

As I walk around the dance floor with Pat Wilson who is now practicing law with Martha Colby we meet the head nurse of Good Samaritan Hospital, Pat Murray.

The clock had just struck twelve and it was time to leave. As I was getting my coat I stopped to talk with Carolyn Shumard, who is teaching chemistry in a near by high school, she told me, that Joanne Hoffman has become one of the ten best secretaries in Ohio and that Wanda Lou Morris is now the business manager of the Cincinnati Post.

As I walked through the door and to my automobile the happy memories of the Class of 1952 once again return to me.

We, the Senior Class of 1952 (being of sound mind) do bequeath the following

To the Juniors we leave our place in the lunch line, our home room with all its confusion, and the hope that they will be as happy as we have been.

To the Sophomores we will our ability of selling, hoping that they may do as well.

To the Freshmen we will our four years of high school and all the happiness that came with it.

I, Elaine Brown, will my quick temper to Shirley Snider and Patty Gilkinson.

I, Loretta Burdsall, will my trim figure to Shirley Glins.

I, Martha Colby, will my place of driving to school and hauling senior girls around to Eileen Heidenreich.

I, Vonda Lea Gaul, will my old shorthand books to Joan Batsos and Wilma Blanchard.

I, Bobby Hawk, will all my easy going manner and ready smile to Jim Werring and Richard Rumpke.

I, Joanne Hoffman, will my ability of chewing gum and giggling in class to Eileen Schill and Charles Brownlee.

I, Charles Holland, will my love for coon and rabbit hunting to James Battig and Joe Hyland.

I, Danny Keenan, will my effort to keep out of trouble to Glenn Broadus and Walter Hudson.

I, Wa da Lou Morris, will my love for horses to Delores Sibert, James Rosselot, and Ralph Lincer.

I. Pat Murray, will my place as artist to Gene Bunning and Richard Ruehle.

I. Carl Ritter, will my love for basketball to James Sumner and Carl Carpenter.

I. Irene Rosselot, will my beloved typewriter to Janice Malone.

I. Louella Shepherd, will my job of mimeographing to Carolyn Carter and Marilyn Miller if they don't mind the few extra hours of scrubbing each night.

I. Carolyn Shumard, will my place in walking to school to Dorothy Malone and Jackie Lemon

I. Florence Stewart, will my shy and quiet manner to Regina Murphy, Vera Carr, and John Stagge.

I. Shirley Wagner, will my place as cheerleader to Patsy Betty and Mary Lou Sumner.

I. Billy Wells, will my red hair to Humie Johnson and Elmore Kassner.

I. Barbara White, will my expert salesmanship to Joyce Hasty and Judy McCormick.

I. Pat Wilson, will all the trouble of being editor of the annual to Bobby Farrell

Signed, sealed, published and declared as our last will and testament.

Results ~

Captain Robert Farrell lead the team with a .542 batting average and he highlighted the season with a no hit no run game against Williamsburg. Jack Lemon's .429 and Joe H. Land's .505 added extra punch to the line-up. The Blackhawks finished in third place with 4 wins, 2 losses and a tie.

Letter winners for the 1951 season were. Captain Robert Farrell, Jack Lemon, Joe H. Land, John Hughes, Richard Riehle, Kenny Scott, Gene Ruehlman, Danny Keenan, Jim Rosselet, Jim Kutler, Paul Carlier, and Ronald Cordes.

Captain for the 1952 season, Robert Farrell.

Most valuable player for the 1951 season, Robert Farrell.

On October 1 twenty-seven aspirants reported to Coach C. W. Smith to represent the high school for the 1951-52 basketball season. Returning from last year's strong squad were Co Captains Jack Lemon and Robert Farrell. A difficult task lies ahead in replacing the eight lettermen lost by graduation. Richard Riehle, Carl Ritter, Wm. Wells, Dan Keenan, Gene Ruehlman, John Hughes, Eugene Binning, Kenny Scott, and Jim Werring are the new boys who form the varsity squad. Only three of these boys will graduate this spring so the future looks bright. However, we're sure the season will produce many thrills and victories for "our boys" and the honors, integrity, and respect of our school will remain as it has in the past.

Lucia Evans, eighth grade student, was the winner of the 1951 Cincinnati Post, Radio Station W.C.P.O. Spelling Bee. This entitled her, along with her spelling coach, Mrs. Greta Thirey, sixth grade teacher of Owenville, to an all expense paid trip to Washington D.C. Here she entered the National Spelling Bee, where she ranked sixth among fifty-one contestants.

Because of her achievements Lucia received a set of Encyclopedia Britannica and ninety dollars in cash, while our school receives rental free ten films of our own choice, over a period of ten months.
